STEWARDS RULE OFF FIZER.

OWNER OF LORD NEVILLE AD-DICTED TO "DOPING" HORSES.

Jockey Fuller's Winning Streak Continues at New Orleans-Crescent City Derby Candidates Win in Two Races-Talent

Has a Hard Time at New Orleans. NEW ORLFAY'S. La . March 10 .- The stewards to-day ruled off the turf W. H. Fizer, the yesterday. The ruling was made for viola-tion of Rule 195 which applies to "doping" The Fizer horses have been under suspicion for some time.

The day was very sultry and cloudy and the track sticky and, heavy. Only one favorite managed to get home in front and the worst blow that the talent received was when Hucena, a 1 to 2 shot, finished in the ruck in the last race. Jockey Fuller carried off the ockey honors by riding three winners. The stewards to-day suspended Jockey Treanor for attempting to throw Fuller over the fence n the fourth race. The initial event saw Handspinner ,a Cres-The initial event saw Handspinner, a Crescent City Derby candidate, as the favorite. Handspinner let Emir and Guess show the way until the head of the stretch, when he came on and won with plenty of daylight separating him from Guess. Handspinner's race to-day so impressed his owner that he will start him in the Derby whether the track is muddy or fast. The second race was thought to be a gift to Henry of Franstamar. but he was never prominent. Chorus Boy was played down from 5 to 1 to 7 to 2 and after letting Sir Fitzhugh show the way for the first quarter raced to the front and won in a gallop

The third proved to be another upset for the talent. It was at a mile and a quarter and Compass was the favorite. Swordsman set the pace, but gave it up after a half had been travelled and turned it over to The way. The latter won under wraps by eight way. The latter won under wraps by eight lengths.

A number of Derby candidates went to the post in the fourth. Floyd K. from the Hildreth stable was the opening favorite, but went up in the betting and at post time Barkelmore was the first choice. Jove, another Derby candidate, was the third choice and was well played by his owner Tommy Griffin. Jove waited on Marco until the half was reached, when he went to the front and won in a gallop from Barkelmore, who had to do his best to secure the place from Floyd K. Up to this race Jove was not considered dangerous for the Derby, but his race to-day gives him more than an outside chance. The veteran mud horse Tom Collins found no trouble in landing the purse in the fifth race. He was the second choice in the betting at a to 5.

FITZ DEPOSITS $5,000. Ready to Box Jack O'Brien for Middle weight Title of the World.

In order to convince the public and his admirers that he means to fight and that he can reduce to 158 pounds, the middleweight limit, and yet be strong, Bob Fitzsimmons yesterday put up a forfeit of $5,000. The money was deposited by his wife. Rose, and was left with Al Smith at the Hotel Bartholdi, this city. The money is nominally for a side bet and to bind a match between Fitz and Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia, who challenged the Cornishman recently and whose defi was forthwith accepted by Lanky Bob. O'Brien and Fitz have already agreed on the terms of the encounter, which is to be held, if nothing intervenes, some time next summer at San Francisco. It will be for the middle-weight championship of the world, a title which Fitz still contends is his, in spite of the assertions of Tommy Ryan et al. to the con-

This is not the first time that Mrs. Fitzsim-This is not the first time that Mrs. Fitzsimmons has acted for or advised her husband. She was at the Carson City ringside when Fitz got home his famous solar plexus punch and won the championship from Jim Corbett, nearly six years ago. After the mill Fitz said that the credit of his victory belonged more to his wife than anybody. "She cheered me on and gave me good advice," he afterward said, in discussing the contest. "She was at the ringside and smiled and encouraged me when things looked decidedly blue." In depositing the money Mrs. Fitzsimmons received the following receipt from Mr. Smith:

Smith:

New York City, March 10, 1903.

I. Al Smith, the final stakeholder for a glove contest between Robert Fitzsimmons and Jack O Brien, for the middleweight championship of the world, at 138 pounds half an hour before they enter the ring, do hereby acknowledge the receipt of $5,000 five thousand dollars from Mrs. Rosalle Fitzsimmons in the shape of a certified check on the American Exchange National Bank, to be put up as a side bet for Robert Fitzsimmons for the sald contest.

As soon as the money was in his pocket.

As soon as the money was in his pocket Smith sent word to O'Brien, in care of the Pittsburg Despatch, as appended: "Pease notify O'Brien that Fitz has deposited $5,000 in my hands as his side bet and deposit for a boxing contest for the middleweight championship of the world, both to weigh in a half hour before the contest."

MORE TIME FOR BAN JOHNSON. American League's "Great Diamond Mystery" Still Unsolved.

American League's "great diamond mystery" continued to hold the centre of the stage yesterday without a solution. Although President Johnson confidently exof the new ball grounds yesterday, he was compelled to disappoint the public again and incidentally refused to make any more

"The information must be held back today," said he, "for the reason that certain details have not been adjusted. It would be folly to make a premature announcement."
The American League men were in ession at the Fifth Avenue Hotel all day and up to a late hour last night. In the room with them were lewyers and supposed stockholders in the new club, who did not have a chance to go to lunch. During the session C. W.
Somers was reelected vice-president of the league and representatives of the Washington, St. Louis, Chicago and Boston clubs were elected a board of directors for the coming year. It was learned that the chief reason for the delay yesterday was a question as to the title of the estate which has been leased by the American League. The point was brought up by the lawyers of both sides and a corps of civil engineers were hurried to the grounds to survey the property—a proceeding which was accomplished late yesterday afternoon. H. J. Killilea, president of the Boston club, said last night:
"When President Johnson makes the final announcement the wisdom of the delay will be readily appreciated. We are going to make things airtight first, then do some talking.

LAUNCHING OF THE SHAMROCK Certain to Take Place on St. Patrick's Day -Thorough Trials Arranged.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, March 10 -On returning from Glusgow yesterday Sir Thomas Lipton said he was certain Shamrock III. would be launched on March 17. Owing to the depth of the yacht's keels it would be necessary to launch her on pontoons. Immediately after the launching the challenger will be after the launching the challenger will be towed to Greenock, where she will be examined and finished. Sir Thomas expects the boat will be turned over to him by the end of March.

It is intended that the challenger shall be thoroughly tested before she starts for the United States. As soon as the new boat is ready she will have several trials with Shamrock I on the Clyde. The real tests, however, will be in the Solent.

Sir Thomas is arranging a series of open races. He will offer substantial prizes and hopes to get the very best British yachts pitted against the challenger. He will also offer something to the crews of the various boats as an incentive to put forward their best efforts. Sir Thomas s advisers are now completing the details of these schemes.

Prior to the open races Shamrock I and the challenger will race at every opportunity. All the members of the challenger's crew have been selected.

ESSEX COUNTY COUNTRY CLUB ARRANGING A CIRCUIT.

Capt. O'Connor Already Has a Number of Fixtures on His Schedule-Brooklawn Country Club May Hold "Free-for-All" Tournament-Clubs Elect Officers.

William P. O'Connor has been elected captain for the season of the Essex County ountry Club and he has made arrangements home-and-home team matches with the Princeton, Apawamis, Richmond County, Oakland, Morris County and Englewoo The club's match season will open with a meeting with the Princeton team. The line can so easily be drawn between the clubs that favor many team matches and those that only play one or two a season that the time would seem to be ripe for the organization of a team-match circuit of four or six local clubs, on the plan of the Hudson River, East Jersey or Long Island league matches. The M. G. A. has pro-nounced against an official team circuit, but no objection can be made against an informal one for a special trophy. Mr. O'Connor would like to hear from the cap-tains of other clubs on this proposition.

Although the Fox Hills Golf Club, on the ground that its course is not at its best for tournaments till the fall, will probably make no offers to hold a "free-for-all" tournament this year, immediately to follow the oper championship, there is every prospect of a supplementary tournament on the lines of that held at the Staten Island course to follow the open meeting last year. The Brooklawn Country Club of Bridgeport decided to hold such a tournament a year ago, provided it would not cause a conflict in dates with any other club, and to find how the situation stands. W. E. Seeley, Jr., chairman of the Green Committee, has written to W. Fellowes Morgan, secretary of the M. G. A., as to what dates may be claimed for a free-for-silf immediately after June 26 and 27, June 29, 30 and July 1 may be granted, which will give the professionals who take part time to be back at their home links by July 4. PLAINFIELD, N. J., March 10.—The annual meeting of the Park Golf Club was held last evening, when offloers were elected, reports received and plans for the coming year formulated. The prospects are that the approaching season will be even more successful than last year. The reports for the year showed the club to be in good financial condition, with a balance in the treasury and 155 members of all classes. The election resulted in the unanimous choice of the following trustees: Charles W. McCutchen, S. St. John McCutchen, Samuel Townsend, George T. Rogers, Francis De L. Hyde, William R. Faber and Charles B. Morse. Following the club meeting the board of trustees met, when these officers were elected: President, George T. Rogers; treasurer, William R. Faber; secretary, Charles B. Morse, President, George T. Rogers; treasurer, William R. Faber; secretary, Charles B. Morse, President C. W. McCutchen announced the following committees: Golf—Samuel Townsend, chairman: S. American Automobile Association Decides to Take in Individuals—Motor League Will, Perhaps, Lose Its Usefulness -Applications Filed for Race Meets

A meeting of the directors of the American Automobile Association, the national body that now regulates the racing, was held yes-terday at the rooms of the Automobile Club of America in this city and action was taken which is likely to result in the disintegration which is likely to result in the disintegration of the American Motor League or the smalgamation of it with the A. A. A.

President Julian A. Chase, M. D., of the Rhode Island Automobile Club, presided. Other clubs represented were the Automobile Club of America by Winthrop E. Scarritt; the Automobile Club of New Jersey, by W. J. Stawart, the Automobile Club of by W. J. Stewart; the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, by F. C. Lewin, and the Albany Automobile Club by Dr. W. E. Millbank. The main object of the meeting was to re-Automobile Club by Dr. W. E. Milbank. The main object of the meeting was to receive the report of the secretary upon the proposal to open the lists of the association to individual memberships instead of confining it to clubs. The report was that the sentiment in favor of such a change is general and that the secretary since the subject was first broached, has received letters of inquiry from many individuals anxious to join, letters coming from Maine Indiana, Kentucky and Arkansas.

After a discussion it was practically decided that individuals should be admitted to membership and a committee consisting of Messrs. W. E. Scarritt, W. J. Stewart and S. M. Butler was appointed to draft the necessary changes in the constitution and bylaws for the body as a whole to vote upon. The secretary was instructed to seek a conference with the officials of the American Motor League. Although it was not so officially stated, it was inferred that this means that an opportunity will be afforded for the Motor league to amalgamate.

At present the American Motor League is an organization formed on the unit basis. It has not been very active, however, and the control of the sport is reconcized as being vested in the A. A. It has been generally considered that if the stronger organization should open its doors to individuals, there would no longer be any excuse for the motor league to exist and that it would fade away if it did not amalgamate.

JIMMY BRITT BEATEN.

Crack California Fighter Who Whipped

Erne Loses Battle on a Foul. Jimmy Britt of California, who recently knocked out Frank Erne, received a setback on Monday night in his march for lightweight honors. Britt met Jack O'Keefe of Chicago honors. Britt met Jack O'Keefe of Chicago before the Pastime A. C., Portland, Ore., in what was to have been a twenty-round bout. Britt, however, was disqualified in the sixth round on a foul.

The fight was a lively one from the start and Britt had everything apparently his own way until the accident happened. In the sixth and final round Britt started in to finish O'Keefe. He brought the Chicago lad to his knees with a left swing into the stomach, and a moment later, banged him on the nose drawing the gore. When they broke from a clinch O'Keefe swing the left for Britt's law. The latter saw the blow coming and stepped inside of O'Keefe's guard. Then Jimmy shot the left into the Chicago man's stomach and O'Keefe dropped to the floor. O'Keefe's seconds immediately raised a howl of "Foul!" and the referee to the surprise of every one present allowed the protest. From the way the mill was progressing it was apparent that O'Keefe could not have lasted another round.

McGraw on Baseball at Columbia. Manager McGraw of the New York National League baseball team, who has been coaching 'olumbia's baesball candidates during the Columbia's baesball candidates during the past week with G. E. Browne, also of the New York team, expressed himself favorably yesterday regarding the prospects of the local team. "There is the material at Columbia," he said, "for an exceptionally good nine, and judging from what I have seen of the bia, "he said, "for an exceptionally good nine, and judging from what I have seen of the college teams Columbia has a remarkably promising lot of players. There are so many good men that it is difficult to choose among them. Of course, it is rather early to form any accurate ideas of the men, but the prospects are certainly very encouracine."

McGraw and Browne will remain at Columbia until Saturday when they will leave to join the New York players at Washington. After a corsultation with Capt. O'Neill yesterday the coaches atmounced their first choice of n'Varsity and a scrub as follows:

"Varsity Catcher, Mehler, who played in 1901, pitchers, Tyler, Graut, Tilt, Del Rio and Gillies, first base, Reddington, second base, Bloomfeid and Taber, both of last year's team, shortstop, former Capt Goodman, who has played behind the bat for two years third base, Dennison, a substitute on the 1962 'Carsity left field, Harrington, centre field, Lockwood, right field, Capt. O'Neill and Godwin.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN.

A. C. C. Will Not Run Irvington-Milburn-Bituminous Macadam for Seventh Av. Eleven clubs were represented at the March meeting of the Associated Cycling Clubs, held at the quarters of the Monroe Wheelmen, 256 West 125th street, on Monday night, when it was decided that the association would not seek to run the Irvington-Milburn road race this year.

President Joseph Oatman was in the chair and this decision was not reached until the discussion had been protracted beyond midnight. The vote on the question was a tie, 5½ against 5½, the two delegates of one club voting differently. The chairman ruled the motion "not carried."

Heorge W. Wheeler, chairman of the Streets and Roads Committee, made a report containing interesting news concerning highway improvements, which in part was as follows: "The Board of Estimate and Ap-follows: "The Board of Estimate and Apportionment have at last approved the specifications for bituminous macadam and authorized its being laid on Seventh avenue, between 110th and 120th streets, and on St. Nicholas avenue, from 124th to 155th street. It will soon be advertised and the work ought to be done in the early summer.

"President Haffen says that repair work on asphalt pavements will be started as soon as the weather is settled. Work has been started on paving Fim street, south of circat Jones street. The greater part of heavy trucking will soon be diverted to this new, wide street, giving more room for bicycles and other light vehicles on Broadway."

The office of secretary-treasurer, that was left open at the annual meeting, was filled by the election of Robert Robinson of the Prospect Wheelmen.

The following resolutions were adopted:

The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas. The road "across the meadows" from Jersey City to Kearny, known as the Belleville turnpike, has for many years been in a condition diagraceful to any civilized community, and such as entails torture not only for blevelists but for users of practically all other vehicles, be it.

Resolved. That the Associated Cycling Clubs of New York view with warm approval the efforts now making looking to its improvement, and, on behalf of thousands of New York wheelmen, who are cut off from the fine roads of Hudson, Essex and other counties by the absence of a good connecting highway, urge that the Jersey conscience be quickened and that the improvements being sought shall be granted, and Resolved. That a copy of this preamble and resolution be sent to the Board of Freeholders of Hudson county, N. J.

BANNON MEETS FAUST. Interesting Bout Between Experts Results in a Draw. Peter Bannon, the Irish middleweight champion, gave a good exhibition of his skill at the London Theatre on the Bowery last night. Faust, the German champion, in a fifteenminute bout at catch-as-catch-can style. The affair lasted the limit, but while it was in progress it was very interesting. Jack McCormick, the pugilist, was referee. Bannon's first attempt was to try for a neck hold but Faust shook him off easily. Then the Irishman tried for a full Nelson. The hold Irishman tried for a full Neison. The non-was also broken - At the third minute Faust became the aggressor. He immediately went after a half Nelson. He got his right arm over the Irishman's neck, but quick as a flash Bannon sat on his haunches and wriggled to Bannon sat on his haunches and wrigzled to a position of safety. Having both arms free Bannon tried for a back neck hold, but Faust came nearly spinning him around for a fall.

At the seventh minute the two worked off the mat. Faust was the argressor, but Bannon was very clusive and got away just when the crowd expected to see him ensuared. The tenth minute was stirring. Bannon was in a tight place, but by clever footwork he managed to get away.

Faust set to work at the twelfth minute. He got a full-beloon and slowly brought the frishman around until both of his shoulders almost touched the mat. Just when matters looked bine Bannon made one twist and fell on his stomach. In the last three minutes both escaped what seemed dangerous holds. When time was called both men apparently lost their heads for they went at each other furiously. They would have come to blows had not McCormick pulled them af art. The decision was a draw. Faust is a tirgeo-Roman wrestler, but his showing at the other style was noteworthy.

The chauffeurs union is not prospering.
The second meeting at 1881 Brondway, which was to have been held list night to effect a permanent organization was not held.
The chief reason for this failure of the automobile operators to get together in the automobile operators to get together in the bonds of unionism seems to have been a lack of enthusiasm. Stragging along, a few at a time, about twenty men went to the rendezvous. The chief enthusiast, lightry Ogle, the chaoffeur for 'Diamond Jim Brady, who was the charmant at the first meeting held a week are, did not put in an appearance. No one cless assumed to have enough interest in the enterprise to take the leadership and call the meeting to order, although the material was en band. A PISTOL SHOT SEND-OFF. Enthusiastic German Bids His Friends on the Kaiser Godspeed. Just before the Kaiser Wilhelm der Gross of the North German Lloyd Line sailed yesterday there was a salute of three pistol shots. The salute was in honor of two women and a man in the steerage.

No announcement had been made that a salute was to be fired and there was a smallsized panie in the crowd on the pier. Everybody tried to get as far as possible from the man who was firing the shots. When the excitement had subsided a short, thickset German had a cleared space of twenty feet around him.

The German was excitedly waving a The German was excitedly waving a handkerchief with one hand and with the other was holding tight to the side pocket of his coat. On the forward deck in the steerage were two women and one man. The man was twirling his hat in the air and the women were frantically waving handkerchiefs at the German, who had his part of the pier all to himself.

Detectives Leeson and Moody, who had been fighting through the crowd to get at the man who had fired the shots, grabbed the German. They fished in his pocket and pulled out a revolver with three chambers hot and empty. The German looked surprised.
